

Dartmouth-Hitchcock Emergency Medicine Diversity Scholarship Program

The Dartmouth Hitchcock Emergency Medicine Department recognizes that as a high functioning and high stakes team, and as a safety net for our community, we promote diversity, equity, inclusion, and belonging in order to provide the highest quality environment for care of our patients and working environment for our colleagues and staff. We are pleased to offer a department-sponsored scholarship for medical students who have been systematically excluded from careers in medicine and who are interested in pursuing Emergency Medicine.

Scholarship Goals

- To offer applicants from a wide range of backgrounds the opportunity to explore the field of Emergency Medicine at a Level 1 Trauma center in Northern New England
- To offset the cost of travel and living expenses with a $2500 stipend
- To provide rigorous mentorship in the field of Emergency Medicine
- To recruit and retain diverse applicants

Eligibility Requirements

1. At the time of the sub-internship at Geisel School of Medicine at Dartmouth, students must be enrolled in their final year of an MD or DO degree at an LCME-accredited institution or COCA-accredited osteopathic medical school that is located within the United States
2. Applicants must have completed all the necessary requisite core clerkships for the elective or sub-internship as determined by each Department
3. Applicants must be in good academic standing

How to Apply

1. Apply to the Dartmouth-Hitchcock EM clerkship via VSLO Geisel 4th Year Elective Program
2. Submission of a personal statement in which applicant explains:
  - Interest and reasoning for pursuing training at Dartmouth Hitchcock
  - Lived experiences that will contribute to building a more diverse, inclusive community
  - Academic or clinical background that will enrich the learning of their colleagues and mentors and improve the care provided to patients
3. Submission of a CV
4. Submit materials to Jessica.L.Brooks@hitchcock.org

Students will be notified separately via email of acceptance to the DH Emergency Medicine Diversity Scholarship (DHEMDS) .

Dual acceptance to both the DHEMDS program and to VSLO is required. Acceptance through the VSLO program does not serve as notification for acceptance to the DHEMDS program. Acceptance to the program does not guarantee subsequent acceptance to any of the DH graduate training programs for residency.
